Workshop Description:

Returning to Work: This session covers practical concerns that arise when dealing with cancer in the workplace. Whether you are looking for a new job after treatment or returning to the same job you had before treatment, this session will provide information to help you take your next steps.

About our presenter:

Nicole received her Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, with a focus on women's health. Following graduation, she worked at Memorial Sloan Kettering for four years in the chemotherapy unit and for a renal oncologist, until attaining her Master of Social Work degree from Hunter College, in 2013. Nicole worked as a social worker in the child welfare arena, advocating for parents in family court, prior to joining Cancer and Careers. Nicole currently resides in Denver, CO.
